Let's Start!

Let's see the sights in Cairo!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like going to large cities on your vacation?
- Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and places around the world.
- I can check my understanding.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.

Let's Explore!

What does Sally find out about the Northern Cemetery in Cairo?

* A "cemetery" is where we place people after they die.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Guide: This is the khan. The bazaar opened here in the 14th century! People still come for everything from soap powder to semiprecious stones.
- Sally: Do you mean gemstones?
- Guide: Yes. Let's go to a tea shop before we continue.
- Sally: Did you say to take off my shoes?
- Guide: Yes, please. Outside the mosque we looked at the dome. Many artisans carved those floral designs. Inside they created these screened windows and decorative wood ceiling. It is a pleasant place to sit and relax.
- Guide: This is the Northern Cemetery. The Mamluk sultans built this place for the dead. People with no homes came to share the mausoleums.
- Sally: I don't quite understand.
- Guide: They lived here. They brought in electricity and established a post office. Even today the living and the dead share this cemetery.
- Sally: Fascinating!

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events or actions that are finished.

To make questions and negatives in the Simple Past tense, you use the auxiliary do in the Simple Past - did. The main verb is in the base form - the infinitive without to (e.g., understand, ask).

Negative: I didn't understand you.

Question: Did you ask me a question?

Verb	Simple Past Form
open look carve create establish share	opened looked carved created established shared say build bring understand go come is	said built brought understood went came was/were

Examples:

- The bazaar opened here in the 14th century!
- Inside they created these screened windows and a decorative wood ceiling.
- They brought in electricity and established a post office.

Learning Points

Checking Your Understanding

When you want to check to see if you understand correctly, you can use different phrases.

Did you say ... ?

I don't quite understand.

Do you mean ... ?

Could you say that again, please?

Could you repeat that please?

Could you give me an example?

Examples:

- Did you understand my question?
- I understood very well.
- I didn't understand you.
