Let's Start!

Let's take a taxi to the pyramids!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you take taxis?
- Do you think the fares in your city are reasonable or expensive? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and places around the world.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can talk about the reason for something.

Let's Explore!

Sally finds out how to get a cab in Cairo!

* "Cab" is another word for taxi.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: I'd like to get some information. Do you have a brochure to explain how to get to the pyramids?
- Concierge: I'd be glad to help you. Use this map to show you where you are.
- Sally: I see. Would you mind pointing out where Giza is?
- Concierge: Certainly. The hotel is here, downtown. The pyramids are here, about 18 km away.
- Sally: Would you tell me how to get there?
- Concierge: No problem. Take a white taxi to get there, not the bus. Walk out to the street, then wave your hand to get one. The pyramids are 30 minutes away.
- Sally: Could you tell me how much a taxi costs?
- Concierge: Sure. Bargain to get a good taxi fare. The fare is about 30 Egyptian pounds or $5 US.

Let's Practice!

Sally requests information!

Instructions: Write the words in the correct category.

Learning Points

Make and Respond to Requests

When you make and respond to requests, remember to be polite.

Practice the requests and responses below.

Making a Request	Responding to a Request
Would you mind ... Would you tell me ... Could you tell me ... I'd like to get ... Is there any chance you could ...	Sure. No problem. Certainly. I'd be glad to help . I'll see what I can do.

Examples:

• Anne: Would you mind pointing out where Giza is?

Concierge: I'd be glad to help.

• Anne: Could you tell me how much a taxi costs?

Concierge: No problem.

Using the Infinitive of Purpose

You use the to + verb (the infinitive) to express purpose. This answers the question "Why ...?"

Action	Purpose
I go to the gym He locked the door	to exercise. to keep everyone out.

Examples:

• Anne: I want to get a taxi to go to the museum.

Concierge: You should bargain to get a good price.
