

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: An unexpected traffic stop.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Have you or anyone in your family been in a car accident before?
- What happened?

Can Do Statements

- I can write a small paragraph.
- I can describe injuries and accidents.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.

Let's Explore!

Sally e-mails Vanessa about a frightening experience on the streets of Cairo.

* "Frightening" means scary.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Vanessa,

I have to tell you about our experience on the hectic streets of Cairo!

The driver was swerving through the busy, congested streets when we came across a frightening accident.

A young boy was lying on the road. He was conscious but not moving. His mother was sitting beside him, crying and holding his head as we arrived. People were gathered around. The driver of the car who hit the boy was having an argument with a group of men. My driver stopped to help. The child looked up at us and pointed to his leg.

There was a large gash from the back of his knee to the bottom of his calf. One of the tourists took off their T-shirt and wrapped it tightly. We then bundled him up and carried him to the waiting car. We took off towards the local hospital. We have since heard from the hospital that he is being well looked after. It was an unforgettable experience.

Sal xoxo

Let's Practice!

Can you put this paragraph in order?

Instructions: Re-read the dialogue. Draw a line from the numbers on the left to the responses on the right to put the paragraph in the correct order.

- His mother was sitting beside him, crying and holding his head.
- It was an unforgettable experience.
- A young boy was lying on the road.
- The driver was swerving through the busy, congested streets when we came across a frightening accident.
- We have since heard from the hospital that he is being well looked after.
- One of the tourists took off their T-shirt and wrapped it tightly.
- We then bundled him up and carried him to the waiting car.
- There was a large gash that started from the back of his knee to the bottom of his calf.

Let's Practice!

What happened to the young boy on the street?

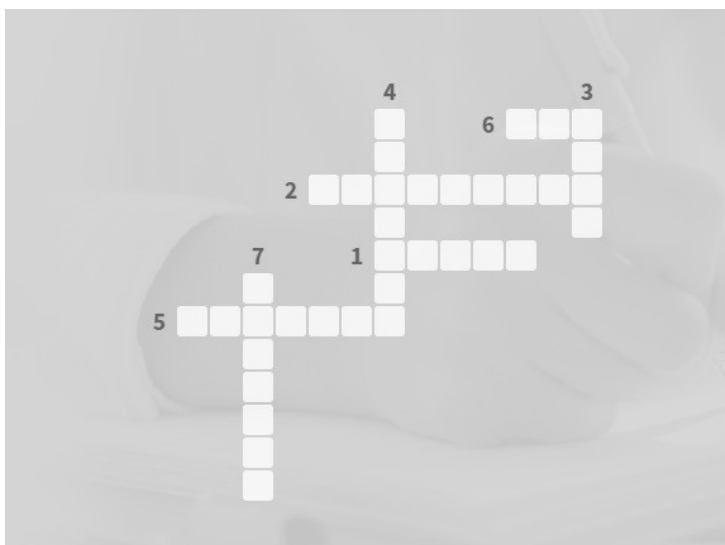

Instructions: Complete the crossword.

Down

- There was a large _____ from the back of his knee to the bottom of his calf.
- We then _____ him up and carried him to the waiting car.
- One of the tourists took off their T-shirt and _____ it tightly.

Across

- A young boy was _____ on the road.
- He was _____ but not moving.
- His mother was sitting beside him, crying and holding his head as we _____.
- The child looked up at us and pointed to his _____.

Extension Activity

Write an e-mail to a friend about an accident.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a 80-100 word e-mail about an accident.
- Use adjectives to describe the event.
- Write 1 sentence that uses the Past Continuous tense and the Simple Past tense.
- Use paragraph structure.
- Read the paragraph aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write a paragraph about an accident.

☐ ☐

I use adjectives to describe an event in my paragraph.

☐ ☐

I use the Past Continuous tense and the Simple Past tense in my paragraph.

☐ ☐

I read my paragraph to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- hectic (adjective): very busy and filled with activity
e.g. The hectic streets were filled with people, cars and wagons.
- congested (adjective): too full or crowded with something e.g. The streets were so congested that the cars could not move.
- conscious (adjective): awake and able to understand what is happening around you e.g. The young boy was conscious.
- gash (noun): a long, deep cut e.g. There was a gash on his lower leg.
- bundled (adjective): dressed in warm clothing
e.g. We bundled up the boy and placed him the car.
- to swerve (verb): to change direction suddenly
e.g. The car was swerving on the road.
- calf (noun): the back part of the leg below the knee e.g. There was a large cut on the back of his calf.
- to wrap (verb): to cover something by folding a piece of material around it
e.g. One of the tourists wrapped up his gash with a T-shirt.

Learning Points

Simple Past tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs. Some verbs need a drop to the last letter to add "ing".

Present	Past	Past Continuous
talk	talked	was/were talking
walk	walked	was/were walking
focus	focused	was/were focusing
lead	led	was/were leading
return	returned	was/were returning
have	had	was/were having
swerve	swerved	was/were swerving

Examples:

- The driver was swerving through the busy, congested streets when we came across a frightening accident.
- We were driving between the hotel and the museum when we saw a lot of men arguing on the street.

