A wagon ride through Cairo?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you go on tours in a new city?
- Do you prefer walking or using public transport? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about transportation and travel.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can express opinions with varying degree of certainty

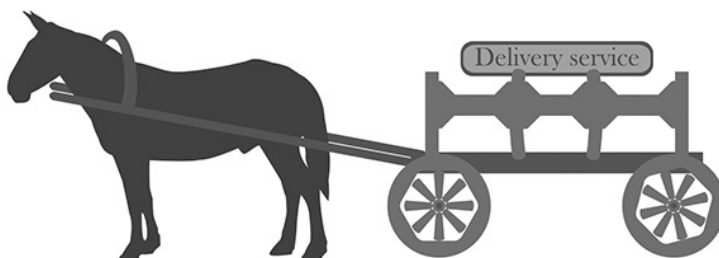

Let's Explore!

Sally takes traditional transportation in Cairo!

* "Traditional" means something from the past that may or may not be used today.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Guide: Hello Miss. I am Mohammed for your city tour.
Sally: Nice to meet you. Is this our transportation?
Guide : Yes. Many people sightsee in open wagons like these.
Sally: Personally, I think this is charming! Can you help me with these cushions?
Guide: Of course.
Guide: Others go by bus or subway.
Sally: In my opinion, they can't experience the city.
Guide: Walking is good too.
Sally: Speaking for myself, the city is chaotic and confusing. Oh, can we stop here?
Guide: No problem, Miss.
Sally: I think the traffic is crazy here. Could you go down quieter roads?
Guide: I'll see what I can do. Here. This is better. We can see where people live.
Sally: I'd say that this is the real Cairo.
Guide: Yes, Miss, it is.
Sally: Mohammed, would you take me to the El-Azmek Garden?
Guide: I'd be glad to, Miss.
