Let's Start!

Let's visit Egypt!

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you know about Egypt?
- Would you like to go to Egypt on holiday? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and places around the world.
- I can describe rooms and objects in them.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.

Let's Explore!

Howard Carter* found Tutankhamen's tomb!

* When "Howard Carter" found the tomb, he became world famous.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

The Valley of the Kings is a huge area. Howard Carter worked for years to find a tomb there. On the final day of his dig, in 1922, he unsealed the tomb door. Inside he saw wonderful things!

Tutankhamun's sarcophagus was made of solid gold. Four painted wooden guards stood around it. The young pharaoh's mummified body wore a magnificent golden mask and gold amulets. These pieces of jewelry protected him against evil. In a second room, they found gold statues, furniture, tools, chariots and games. He had everything he needed for the afterlife.

Tutankhamun was not a great historical figure. However, the discovery of his tomb guaranteed him an eternal place in our history books. It is from his death and tomb that we rediscovered ancient Egypt.

Let's Practice!
